Description

Manufactured in December 1974, chassis 18259 is 1 of only 58 original RHD, UK delivered cars. It was delivered to UK importer, Maranello Concessionaires in January 1975 and first registered in the UK at the time. According to the copies of the build sheets and correspondence from Tony Willis of Maranello Concessionaires Archive, chassis 18259 is finished in its original colour scheme of Azzuro blue with a Nero hide interior and matching numbers. This boxer boasts a fantastic history with the original order form from HR Owen to Maranello, a copy of the original delivery letter and Ferrari records confirming the car was destined for Singapore after its arrival in the UK. The car returned to the UK in the mid 1980s and purchased by British Hotelier and collector, Sonu Shivdasani. Correspondence in the file includes a recent email from Mr Shivdasani confirming his purchase of the car from either the Sultan of Brunei or the King of Malaysia. The car remained in his ownership until the mid 1990s. In 1995, the car was sold to Paul Simon with a recorded mileage of 1,550 miles and is now believed to be 4,487 miles. Chassis 18259 was laid up for a number of years; it has subsequently undergone a full re-spray in its original colour scheme of Azzuro blue as well as a re-trim and engine out overhaul, including replacing exhaust valves and rebuilding the cylinder heads by Ferrari specialist Neal Lucas in Camberley, Surrey. One of the most rare Ferraris produced; this right hand drive example prevents beautifully in its original Azzuro livery. For more information about this Ferrari 365 GT4 BB or to arrange an appointment, please contact our sales team on 01474 874555 or 07515 430430.
