Description

The Ferrari 328 GTS and GTB had their worldwide debut at the 1985 Frankfurt motor show. Pininfarina's Leonardo Fioravanti softened his previous design, remaining a popular choice with the Ferrari aficionados. Under the engine cover is the same transversely-mounted, fuel-injected V8 engine from the Ferrari 308 Quattrovalvole, with an increase in displacement to 3.2 litres. First registered in 1989, this right-hand-drive Ferrari 328 GTS remains in excellent original condition and has been maintained by Foskers more recently. It features a perfect colour combination of Rosso Corsa, Crema Hide and red carpets, as well as an extensive history file which setting out an excellent record of ownership and maintenance from new. This late-ABS example also boasts a low mileage of 29,085 and fantastic mechanical and cosmetic condition.
